THE MAGIC of MARY HAMILTON CONTINUES.

Hallmark Master Artist Mary Hamilton celebrates 60 years with Hallmark this year. She joined the company at age 19 and has created more than 3,000 card designs. With the exception of chairman Donald J. Hall, she is the longest-tenured Hallmark employee. Her soft and distinctive watercolor animals and angels that she calls "cutes" have graced cards for more than half a century and have been a constant source of inspiration for ornaments.

A NEW SERIES IS BORN.

Hallmark Keepsake Artist Kristina Gaughran celebrates the arrival of her second child in 2015, as well as her new Baby Fairy Messengers series. The little duo is based on grown-up Poinsettia, which was the very first offering in the Fairy Messengers series in 2005, and grown-up Lotus, this year's fairy. Kristina incorporated the corresponding flower into each design as a resting surface, like a baby's blanket.
